

Dear DSMRM member,

The European Society for Magnetic Resonance in Medicine and Biology is a non-profit Society, which aims to support educational activities and research in the widest sense in the field defined by the Society's name. The ESMRMB is open to physicians, engineers, scientists and other individuals who are interested in the development or the introduction of magnetic resonance techniques in the fields of medicine and biology.

DSMMR being an Affiliated Member organisation of ESMRMB, we would like to invite you to become Associate Member of ESMRMB.

As in previous years there are two different options of Associate Membership:

- Free Associate Membership, including access to all information related to the activities of ESMRMB
- Associate Membership including online access to the official journal of ESMRMB, MAGMA in addition to the other services indicated above.

In order to benefit from this service, an annual associate membership fee of € 10.- will become applicable for each individual wishing to have online access to MAGMA, payable directly to ESMRMB.

In order to become Associate or Free Associate Member of ESMRMB please register online at: www.esmrmmb.org.

We are looking forward to welcoming you soon in our society and will be happy to answer any questions you might have.

With best regards,
